

Sherry Lenich Bio

Pianist Sherry Lenich operates a piano studio where she successfully prepares and mentors students for evaluations, competitions, auditions, music careers, and enjoying the fun of piano playing. She is an active accompanist for area studio music recitals, competitions, and evaluations and has worked for the Scottsdale School District and area churches as the choral accompanist. Along with cellist Ian Ginsburg, she founded DuoWest who performed over seventy concerts throughout Arizona. Sherry has written and received funding for more than a dozen arts grants. DuoWest commissioned and premiered Artifacts, a song cycle by Craig Bohmler and Marion Adler for cello, piano, and mezzo-soprano. Sherry is the secretary of state board of the Arizona Study Program and a past president of Arizona State Music Teachers Association. MM Piano Pedagogy Tempe University, BM Music Education Ithaca College, Nationally Certified Teacher of Music.